Unmatched Quality, Unrivalled Support

JD Investigations is a full-service investigation and detective agency committed to providing our clients with affordable, efficient, and confidential corporate and private investigative services. When JD Investigations is retained as an agency, you become an integral part of our organization. Ultimately we measure results through our customer satisfaction and our ability to effectively resolve your unique situation.

As current and former CSIs and Detectives in large metropolitan cities, our agents are able to leverage the talent and expertise of their extensive networks to provide customized investigative services with a level of quality and results that are unequalled in the industry today. The collective expertise and experience of our team are unequalled in the industry with more than 50 years of combined detective and crime scene investigations experience in both the public and private sectors.

Whether you are a private citizen, an attorney, insurance company, corporate executive or business owner, government official or a member of law enforcement, you can always call, email or write us for a free confidential consultation. The goal of JD Investigations is to find the answers to your problems and seek a permanent solution so that you can have peace of mind.

From domestic to corporate issues, we go the extra mile to ensure that the job gets done right the first time! We are at your service 24 hours a day, 7 days a week, because we know that situations requiring our specialized services can occur at any time.

Comprehensive Investigative Services

At JD Investigations, our primary mission is to solve your problems— whether they are personal or business. We reunite people with lost loved ones and we try to help our clients in their most difficult situations. When the police are unable to solve an investigation, we can generally help the individual who has been victimized and get the results that they deserve.

Our private investigators and detectives have collectively solved almost every private investigative and security issue imaginable. All of JD Investigations' private investigators and detectives are current or former law enforcement officers and are licensed in their areas of expertise within the jurisdiction where the work is performed. All investigators are properly licensed by the State of California and have been thoroughly screened by the Federal Bureau of Investigations.

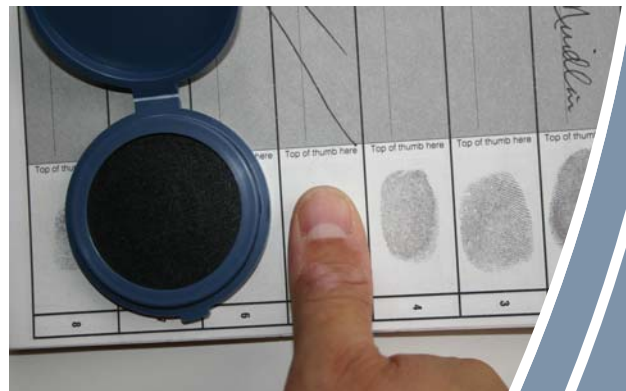

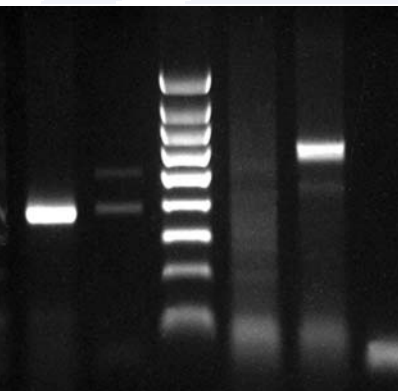

Criminal and Civil investigations

JD Investigations' agents are highly experienced, each having either extensive law enforcement or CSI backgrounds. Our reputation is based on our clients' satisfaction. Our agents are experienced in conducting investigations that lead to attainment of the desired information. In addition to support, JD Investigations can conduct surveillance operations utilizing the most advanced and sophisticated equipment available, including specialized surveillance vehicles, video cameras, and communications equipment.
